Philosophy of MASO:

- To offer sports training (with the option of competition) year-round
- To work on learning new or improving motor skills
- To increase physical fitness through healthy activities
- To develop friendships, learn good sportsmanship and encourage others
- To increase self-confidence and a positive image of oneself
- To develop an environment for parents to interact and support one another

Sports:

Middleton Area Special Olympics participates in sports year-round.

The sports our agency offers include:

Bowling (fall)
Cross-country skiing (early winter)
Team basketball (winter)
Artistic gymnastics (winter)
Athletics (Track & Field, spring)
Bocce Ball (summer)

Requirements:

Please visit the Special Olympics Wisconsin website listed above regarding eligibility requirements for athletes participating in Special Olympics.

All athletes must complete an Application for Participation in Special Olympics Form (medical) and Official Special Olympics Release Form before participating in any sports with MASO.

Medical forms must be mailed into the State Office (cannot be faxed) and postmarked by the appropriate medical deadline date for the sport in which the athlete is participating. Approved medical forms are valid for a 3-year period. Forms are available online at the Special Olympics Wisconsin website.
