

Common Questions

What programs will the foundation support? The MCPASD Board of Directors has identified three areas:

- * Mini-grants for staff.
- * Scholarships for students.
- * Innovative technology, with a special emphasis on providing computers and internet access to low-income students.

Who selects recipients? The MCPASD Education Foundation board will review applications from staff and students and recommend grant awards. The board will also consider expanding its programs in the future.

What types of assets can I give?

MCF can accept cash, credit card donations, electronic funds transfers, gifts of stock, real estate, IRAs, charitable gift annuities (CGA) and other assets on behalf of the MCPASD Education Foundation. Call MCF for details.

It's Your Foundation

The foundation's mission supports innovation and excellence in learning by building partnerships with our communities. It is managed and operated by volunteers who love our schools.

Why Is This Foundation Vital?

Cuts in funding have made it more difficult to maintain and expand programs, let alone add new ones. An opportunity gap exists between our most affluent and poorest students and must be closed. An Education Foundation will help us maintain, bring back or add programs we might otherwise not have and give all of our students more inspiring experiences.

Our Goal

- MCPASD alumni, businesses, residents and staff make tax-deductible contributions to the foundation.
- Some contributions are invested in an endowment for long-term growth. Others are used for immediate needs, such as scholarships.
- Earnings on the endowment are available in perpetuity to support students and staff and protect the endowment against inflation — ensuring the endowment is as valuable to future generations as it is today.
- Over time the endowment grows through contributions to become a consistent, major resource to staff, students and community.

Our Partner

The MCPASD Education Foundation was established in 2011 as an Acorn Fund of the Madison Community Foundation. The relationship with MCF maximizes earnings, secures principal and minimizes administrative costs.

Established in 1942, MCF has more than $135 million in assets. MCF has committed more than $500,000 for Middleton and Cross Plains projects since 2000.

Madison Community Foundation's mission is to encourage, facilitate and manage long-term local philanthropy.
